

The Netherlands Institute at Athens invites you to the fourth session in the lecture series:

Telling Histories

images, memories, narrations

Session 4

“The Musealization of the Holocaust”

Dr. Erik Somers – Cultural Historian, Researcher at the Netherlands’ Institute for War, Holocaust and Genocide Studies (NIOD):
The Holocaust in the museum. Changing memory and representation.

Dr. Esther Solomon – Assistant Professor Museum Studies, Department of Fine Art and Sciences of Art, University of Ioannina:
The musealization of the Holocaust: “From the survivors’ perspective”.

Moderator - Discussant: Dr. Riki van Boeschoten - Emeritus Professor, Department of History, Archaeology and Social Anthropology, University of Thessaly.

The lectures will be followed by a discussion. All sessions and discussions will be conducted in English.

The event will take place on Tuesday, 10th May 2016, 7:00 p.m., at the Netherlands Institute at Athens, Makri 11 – Makrygianni (Metro Akropoli).

Because of the limited number of seats available, please make your reservation by sending an e-mail to nia@nia.gr or by calling 210-9210760 (Monday to Friday, office hours 10.00 a.m. - 4.00 p.m.).

Please find further information on the series, the speakers and abstracts of their lectures in the attached document.