

NIA INTERUNIVERSITY COURSE
Modern Greek II & IV
21-29 June 2022
Netherlands Institute at Athens

Doing archeological fieldwork and staying in Greece becomes more interesting when you are able to communicate with the locals. The intensive course Modern Greek II is for students with level A1 (or those who completed Modern Greek I at the NIA) and leads up to level A2.

Greek IV starts at level A2 and dives deeper into grammar, allows you to understand and conduct conversations on more complex topics from daily life, while boosting your vocabulary. The course takes you halfway the B1 curriculum.

BA and MA students can access to the language acquisition exams II & IV of Modern Greek at the University of Amsterdam after this course.

The course can accommodate up to 12 students, researchers and university staff from the Universities of Amsterdam, Leiden and Utrecht, VU University Amsterdam, University of Groningen and Radboud University (if there is enough space, other students / high school teachers etc. can also be accommodated)

If your level is different from the levels described above, please contact Taalhuis Amsterdam info@taalhuisamsterdam.nl for more information. If possible, we will try to accommodate you.
