

Annual meeting of the Dutch Young Romanists

4th-5th May 2023, Athens

The annual meeting of the Dutch Young Romanists in 2023 is organised by the Legal History Department of the University of Groningen and the Netherlands Institute in Athens in co-operation with the Department of History and Theory of Law of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens. Location: Netherlands Institute at Athens, Makri 11, Athens 117 42

PROGRAMME

Thursday 4th May

10.00-10.30: Rian Bobbink, University of Nijmegen

The function of tacit antichresis

10.30-11.00: Jeannette Smit, University of Groningen

Pignus nominis. Don't judge a book by its cover

11.00-11.15: coffee break

11.15-11.45: Willem Rijnenberg, University of Nijmegen

Secured creditors and bankruptcy in the Corpus Iuris Civilis

11.45-12.15: Quintijn Mauer, University of Leiden

Does the Emperor think Greek? An examination of bilingual legal writings from Paul's collection of imperial decisions

12.15-12.30: coffee break

12.30-13.00: Hermen Reehuis, University of Utrecht

Roman law in mint condition? – about the proprietary effect of the fulfilment of the suspensive condition in a conditional transfer

13.00-13.30: Delphine Sirks, University of Amsterdam (VU)

Reception of Roman law in the Court of Friesland: Mutual insurance in maritime communities

13.30-13.45: Daphne Penna, University of Groningen

As a conclusion: Dutch Young Romanists and future perspectives of cooperation with the NIA

Friday 5th May

Visit to sites and museums focusing on ancient Greek and Roman legislation and justice.