

Fields, Sherds and Scholars

Recording and Interpreting Survey Ceramics

24 & 25 February 2017

Hosted by the Danish Institute at Athens, Herefondos 14, Plaka

NIA –EBSA early career scholar conference, for more information:

Margarita Nazou margarita.nazou@uclouvain.be

Anna Meens a.meens@uva.nl

Winfred van de Put director@nia.gr

Fields, Sherds and Scholars Recording and Interpreting Survey Ceramics

24 & 25 February 2017

The Danish Institute at Athens, Herefondos 14, Plaka

| Day 1: Friday February 24th | | |
|------------------------------------|--|---|
| 16:00-16:15 | Conference opening | |
| 16:15-16:35 | Vladimir Stissi Diagnosing the (un)diagnostic: using sherd catalogues as a source of interpretation | Interpreting survey pottery |
| 16:35-16:55 | Kristina Winther-Jacobsen Sampling, recording, interpretation and publication, why is it so complicated? | |
| 16:55- 17:15 | Jesús García Sánchez Statistical distances on a map (STADION): A method to explore intra-site variability of pottery assemblages | |
| 17:15-17:45 | Session Discussion | |
| 17:45-18:15 | Coffee break | |
| 18:15-18:35 | Christian F. Cloke, Alex R. Knodell, Sylvian Fachard, Kalliopi Papangeli Diagnostic Visibility and Problems of Quantification in Survey Assemblages: Examples from the Mazi Archaeological Project (Northwest Attica) | Diagnosticity and Classification |
| 18:35-18:55 | Tymon de Haas & Gijs Tol From dating sites to reconstructing socio-economic histories: Developments in the interpretation of surface ceramics within the Pontine Region Project | |
| 18:55-19:15 | Session Discussion | |
| 19:15-19:30 | Break | |
| 19:30-20:15 | Keynote lecture: Todd Whitelaw Reconciling objectives and methods in the collection and analysis of surface survey ceramics in Greek surveys | KEYNOTE |
| 20:15-20:30 | Discussion | |
| 20:30-21:30 | Drinks | |
| 21:30 | Conference dinner | |

| Day 2: Saturday February 25th | | |
|--------------------------------------|---|---------------------------------|
| 10:00-10:20 | Ayla Krijnen, Jitte Waagen & Jill Hilditch Survey, ceramics and statistics: the potential for technological traits as chronological markers | Fabrics and technology |
| 10:20-10:40 | Margarita Nazou, Joanne Murphy, Natalie Abell and John Wallrodt Down to the details: the pottery recording methodology from the Kea Archaeological Research Survey | |
| 10:40-11:00 | Francesca Ippolito & Peter A. J. Attema The potential of impasto pottery studies for understanding regional settlement dynamics and cultural connectivity in Bronze Age landscapes in Italy | |
| 11:00-11:30 | Session Discussion | |
| 11:30-12:00 | Coffee break | |
| 12:00-12:20 | Anna Meens A buried landscape and a landscape of the buried: Considering rural burial sites in survey | Interpreting rural sites |
| 12:20-12:40 | Marleen Termeer Creating a differentiated colonial landscape: variability in black gloss pottery around the colony of Aesernia (Central Italy) | |
| 12:40-13:00 | Dimitri van Limbergen, Devi Taelman & Frank Vermeulen Time matters. Or how to extract diachronic patterning from field survey data and reconstruct rural history in the lower Potenza valley (central Italy) | |
| 13:00-13:30 | Session Discussion | |
| 13:30-14:30 | Lunch break | |
| 14:30-14:50 | Corien Wiersma The Ayios Vasilios Survey Project: Sampling a prehistoric 'urban' settlement | Urban survey |
| 14:50-15:10 | Dean Peeters, Philip Bes & Jeroen Poblome A case in point. The Late Hellenistic to Late Roman pottery from extra-mural Tanagra: methodology, chronology and function | |
| 15:10-15:30 | Conor Trainor & Peter Stone Tales of Two Cities: Urban Surveys of the Hellenistic and Roman Cities of Sikyon and Knossos | |
| 15:30- 16:00 | Session discussion | |
| 16:00-17:00 | Final Discussion (lead by John Bintliff) | DISCUSSION |
| 17:00 | Closing remarks | |