

Symposium: Records and Religious Knowledge in ancient Greece

The Netherlands Institute at Athens

11 April 2024

PROGRAMME

9.30: Welcome

9.45: Introduction

10.00–10.50: Antoine Chabod (Collège de France): ‘Religion and Epigraphic Habit in Early Classical Greece’

10.50–11.40: Edward M. Harris (Durham and Edinburgh): ‘How to Read an Inscription about Greek Sacred Norms: The Role of Signs’

Coffee break

12.00–12.50: Rebecca Van Hove (Groningen): ‘Inscriptions as Sources for Oracular Knowledge

Lunch

14.00–14.50: Jenny Wallensten (Swedish Institute at Athens): ‘Open secrets. On lists of mystai from Samothrace to Hermione’

14.50–15.40: Bartłomiej Bednarek (Munich): ‘Refreshing wine in old wineskins: Three maenadic inscriptions from Asia Minor’

Coffee break

16.00–16.50: Christina Kokkinia (National Hellenic Research Foundation): ‘Emperors, gods, governors and priests: Secular and divine authority in the epigraphy of Roman Egypt’

18.00: Keynote: Rosalind Thomas (Oxford): ‘“And may you, Phoibos, give a gracious return”: Writing and Piety in archaic Greece’

ORGANISATION & CONTACT

Rebecca Van Hove (Groningen)
r.van.hove@rug.nl

Netherlands Institute at Athens

NEDERLANDSE
WETENSCHAPPELIJKE
INSTITUTEN IN HET BUITENLAND

rijksuniversiteit
 groningen